

NeuroMetrix Showcases Quell™ Wearable Pain Relief Technology at the Pri-Med East Annual Conference

BOSTON--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- NeuroMetrix, Inc. (NASDAQ:NURO) today announced that its Quell Wearable Pain Relief Technology will be exhibited at the Pri-Med East Annual Conference in Boston on September 18-20, 2015. The Pri-Med East Annual Conference curriculum is developed with the American College of Physicians and is an important source of education for primary care physicians and other healthcare professionals on a wide range of therapeutic topics and the latest treatments and therapies. Over 4000 persons are expected to attend.

"Primary care physicians are at the frontline of treating chronic conditions," said Shai N. Gozani, M.D., Ph.D. President and CEO of NeuroMetrix, Inc. "Quell represents a new option for them in helping their patients manage chronic pain conditions such as painful diabetic neuropathy, sciatica, arthritis and fibromyalgia."

About Quell Wearable Pain Relief Device

Quell is an easy-to-use, over-the-counter device for relief of chronic pain. This wearable device utilizes NeuroMetrix's wearable intensive nerve stimulation (WINS) technology to provide pain relief. In a recent clinical study, Quell was shown to improve chronic pain and overall health in 81% of participants. Quell is currently available through select healthcare professionals, retailers and online at www.QuellRelief.com.
