NeuroMetrix Reports Q2 2018 Financial Results

Initial $3.8M Milestone Achieved under GSK Strategic Collaboration

WALTHAM, Mass., July 19, 2018(Globe NewsWire) -- NeuroMetrix, Inc. (Nasdaq: NURO), today reported financial and business highlights for the quarter ended June 30, 2018.

The Company develops and markets novel therapies, based on neurostimulation and digital medicine, for chronic health conditions. The Company has two primary products. Quell® is an over-the-counter wearable neurostimulation device for treating chronic pain. DPNCheck® is a point-of-care test that provides accurate and cost-effective screening, diagnosis and monitoring of diabetic peripheral neuropathy (DPN).

GSK Update

In Q1 2018 the Company and GlaxoSmithKline (NYSE: GSK) entered a $26.5 million strategic collaboration to develop and market Quell technology with defined milestones. The parties also committed to co-fund development of Quell technology starting in 2019.

The first collaboration milestone was achieved during Q2 2018 and triggered a $3.8 million payment. The Company expects total funding from the collaboration during 2018 to be $12.7 million. Approximately $8.8 million has been received year to date.

"We are working closely with GSK on Quell product development," said Shai N. Gozani, M.D., Ph.D., President and Chief Executive Officer of NeuroMetrix. "These efforts are essential to both the GSK launch in markets outside the U.S. and to our U.S. release of the next generation Quell later this year. We are confident that the new product features will resonate with people suffering from chronic pain and will deliver expanded margins for the business."

Q2 2018 Highlights:

- Total revenue of $3.8 million decreased 13% from $4.3 million in Q2 2017
 - Quell revenue of $2.1 million was down 32% from $3.0 million Q2 2017. The drop was anticipated and correlates with a 37% deferral in ad spending to support the next generation Quell launch later in the year.
 - DPNCheck revenue of $1.3 million was up 58% from Q2 2017. This was a new quarterly high and reflected strength in both domestic and international markets.
- Gross margin of 48.0% was up 9.2 percentage points from 38.8% in Q2 2017
- Operating expenses of $5.0 million were unchanged from Q2 2017
- Net collaboration income of $3.7 million was recorded
- Net income of $0.6 million compared with a net loss of $3.2 million in Q2 2017
- Cash at June 30, 2018 totaled $7.1 million
